SUBJECT: Donald Duane Oliver

Dear Grant:

About a year ago, we had communication concerning the above named individual and his registration in Troop 43 of Safety Harbor, Florida. It was indicated in communication by the Sheriff of Pinellas County, Florida that he had been arrested for lewd and lascivious acts upon a child.

We need to know whether or not any legal action has been completed and the final sentencing which has taken place. This will complete our file and enable us to refuse registration anywhere it should take place in the country.

We appreciate your help and hope we can soon have our file complete. This will help all councils in the country.

Dear Detective Rasor:

You recently wrote to our office concerning the arrest of Donald Duane Oliver.

At this time, we do not have this individual listed on our file for registration. We rely heavily on our local Scout offices for maintaining information on the registration of individuals. Presently, we retain only the last three years of registration in this office and, therefore, do not have the registration records for 1981 and prior which we can check.

We are sorry that we cannot help you with more detail from this office. We would appreciate any more information which may become available, since we certainly would not want to again, knowingly register Mr. Oliver anywhere in the country.

Thanks for your help.

Recently our agency arrested Donald Duane Oliver, W/M, DOB/070347 for two counts of Lewd and Lascivious Acts upon a child. Donald Duane Oliver was a Scout Leader in Troop #43, Safety Harbor, Florida. Both of the victim's were Boy Scouts in Oliver's troop.

Donald Oliver advised me that he was active with the Boy Scouts while he resided in Pittsburgh, PA. Donald Oliver had resided in 1981 at Rd.1, Prospect, PA., and moved during the end of 1981 to Florida.

I have spoken to Russ Weaver, Director of the Boy Scouts in Pittsburgh, about this incident. Weaver could not locate the troop Oliver had been a leader in during 1981. Our agency requests that a check of your records be made and try to locate the troop Donald Oliver was a leader in previous and during 1981.

Please contact our agency as soon as possible. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Scout leader charged in fondling of boy

Largo-Seminole Times Staff Writer

SAFETY HARBOR — A 37-year-old Boy Scout troop leader was arrested Sunday night and accused of fondling a 12-year-old boy in his troop.

Donald Duane Oliver of 260 13th Ave. N, Safety Harbor, was in jail Monday in lieu of $25,000 bail. Pinellas County sheriff's spokesman Lt. John Bocchichio said Oliver is charged with one count of lewd and lascivious behavior. The incident took place last week at Oliver's home where a group of boys had gathered before a Scout outing, sheriff's officials said.

Oliver was arrested by sheriff's detectives after the child reported the incident to his parents, who notified law enforcement authorities, officials said.

Oliver, a service station manager, has been involved in scouting for about a year and a half, Bocchichio said.

Scout troops are organized by independent groups and then chartered by the Boy Scouts of America, a Scout official said. The charters are renewed annually.

Grant Wallin, executive director of Boy Scouts of America in Pinellas County and West Pasco county, said Monday that the organization "preaches constantly that great care should be exercised in selecting leaders. We have a list of guidelines we give to people organizing new troops and hope they will be followed.

"We try to exercise as many safeguards as possible. It's unfortunate when something like this happens."
